More Like Jesus (Kristian Stanfill)

(VERSE 1)

You came to the world You created
Trading Your crown for a cross
You willingly died
Your innocent life paid the cost

(VERSE 2)

Counting Your status as nothing
The King of all kings came to serve
Washing my feet
Covering me with Your love

(CHORUS)

If more of You means less of me
Take everything
Yes, all of You is all I need
Take everything

(VERSE 3)

You are my life and my treasure
The One that I can't live without
Here at Your feet my desires and dreams, I lay down
Here at Your feet my desires and dreams, I lay down

(CHORUS)

(BRIDGE 2x)

Oh Lord
Change me like only You can
Here with my heart in Your hands
Father, I pray
Make me more like Jesus

This world
Is dying to know who You are
You've shown us the way to Your heart
Father, I pray
Make me more like Jesus

(CHORUS 2x)

Gather Your People (Bob Hurd)

(CHORUS)

Gather your people, O Lord.
Gather your people, O Lord.
One bread, one body, one spirit of love.
Gather your people, O Lord.

(VERSE 1)

Draw us forth to the table of life: brothers and sisters,
Each of us called to walk in your light.

(VERSE 2)

We are parts of the body of Christ, needing each other,
Each of the gifts the Spirit provides.

(VERSE 3)

Wash us, Lord, in the waters of life: waters of mercy,
Waters of hope that flow from your side.

- First Reading -

A reading from the Second Book of Kings.

A man came bringing food from the first fruits to Elisha, the man of God: twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in his sack. Elisha said, "Give it to the people and let them eat."

But his servant said, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" So Elisha repeated, "Give it to the people and let them eat, for thus says the Lord, 'They shall eat and have some left.'"

The servant set it before them, they ate, and had some left, according to the word of the Lord.

The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm (CBW: Pg. 161)

(CHORUS)

Your hand, O Lord, feeds us; You answer all our needs.

(1) All Your creatures shall thank you, O Lord
and Your friends shall re-peat their blessing.

They shall speak of the glory of Your reign
And declare Your might, O God.

(2) The eyes of all creatures look to You,
And You give them their food in due time.

You open wide Your hand;
Grant the desires of all who live.

(3) You are just in all Your ways
And loving in all Your deeds.

You are close to all who call You.
Who call on You from their hearts.

- Second Reading -

A reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians.

Brothers and sisters: I, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all.

The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alle-luia,

Sing with me alle-luia

And all will sing alle-, alle-, luia

"A great prophet has appeared among us;
God has visited His people."

- Gospel Reading -

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to You, O Lord.

Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. A large crowd kept following Him, because they saw the signs that He was doing for the sick. Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with His disciples. Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near.

When He looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward Him, Jesus said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?" He said this to test him, for He Himself know what He was going to do. Philip answered Him, "Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little."

One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Jesus, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?" Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all.

Then Jesus took the loaves, and when He had given thanks, He distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, He told His disciples, "Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost." So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets.

When the people saw the sign that He had done, they began to say, "This is indeed the Prophet who is to come into the world." When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take Him by force to make Him king, He withdrew again to the mountain by Himself.

The Gospel of the Lord.

To share this Heavenly food

(2) You give yourself to us O Lord
Then selfless let us be
To serve each other in Your Name
In truth and charity
